

Europäische Union

Europäischer Sozialfonds ESF
Chancen nutzen, Beschäftigung sichern!

Hamburg

Behörde für Arbeit,
Soziales, Familie
und Integration

„Freedom of Movement for Workers – perspectives, opportunities and challenges from the point of view of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg“

Hanse-Office, Avenue Palmerston 20, B-1000 Brussels on 28 March 2019, 12:30 – 5:00 pm

Programme of expert conference

12.30 pm registration with lunch

1:30 pm start of the conference

Welcome by the Hanse-Office

Welcome and Introduction – Moderator Ralph Sina, NDR/ WDR

Keynotes

- Lambert Kleinmann, policy officer at the European Commission's directorate general for employment, social affairs and inclusion
- Martin Weber, Department Head, Labour Market Policy at Ministry of Labour, Social and Family Affairs and Integration

Contributions about Free Movement for Workers in Hamburg

- Introduction to the ESF-project “Servicepoint Free Movement of EU workers“, Rüdiger Winter, Arbeit und Leben Hamburg, project lead
- Presentation of the findings from the project evaluation, Simon Böhmer, Rambøll Management Consulting GmbH

Europäische Union

Europäischer Sozialfonds ESF
Chancen nutzen, Beschäftigung sichern!

Behörde für Arbeit,
Soziales, Familie
und Integration

2:30 pm coffee break

3:00 pm panel discussion

Participants of the panel discussion

- Lambert Kleinmann, see above
- Rüdiger Winter, see above
- Werner Buelen, European trade unions (EFBH)
- Jan Cremers, Tilburg Law School
- Sandra Parthie, German Economic Institute, Brussels Office

4:15 pm questions from the audience

4:45 pm summary and conclusion

5:00 pm end of the conference

You can find more information about the conference on www.esf-hamburg.de.